ANOTHER SURPRISE BY MADDEN

THE RIVAL, IN FORM REVERSAL, WINS AT GOOD ODDS.

Takes Russet Handleap From His Eminence in Fast Time - Sergeant Captures the Golden Rod Stakes-Belle of Troy Defeats Ethics Three Favorites Win.

John E. Madden's The Rival won the Russet Handicap for three-year-olds and up-ward at a mile and a half on turf yes-terday afternoon at Sheepshead Bay, and, incidentally, displayed a change in form that would have made an acrobat turn green with envy. On Wednesday The Rival, carrying 104 pounds, was easily beaten by Articulate and Moor at a mile and a quarter, the Halma colt showing no speed. In the Russet, however, The Rival, with 105 pounds, won by a neck in 2:33 4-5, a new record for the race and wo-fifths of a second slower than Trigger's track record. Incidentally, Madden's colt was backed dean from 6 to 1 to fours, though when the horses were at the post there was only 2½ to 1 in man, books. while in others the Halma coit was wiped on. Fred Gebhard's His Eminence was the favorite at 6 to 5, while 7 to 5 was quoted against Articulate, who took up 126 pounds. The latter made the running, closely attended by His Eminence, to the stretch, where Articulate stopped under the weight and Michaels, who had rated The Rival along in last place. moved up with agrueh in time to win in the last few jumps.

The Golden Eod Stakes for two-year-olds at six and a half furlongs on the main track was won by F. R. Hitchcock's Sergeant, the favorite. Lady Josephine was in front for was won by F. R. Hitchcock's Sergeant, the favorite. Lady Josephine was in front for half a mile, with Incubator close behind her. Then O'Connor let Sergeant down, and he won easily by a length and a half in 120 4-5, a new record for the race and track. At the head of the stretch Incubator stopped, but came on again and was beaten a head for the place by Lady Josephine.

The $1,200 handicap at a mile and a furlong went to the favorite, Belle of Troy, who defeated Ethics in a drive by a length in 133 4-5. Turner, who rode Advance Guard, was in numerous pockets, the Great Tom horse finishing a length outside of the money. Douro was third, beaten a head.

Eighteen maiden two-year-old fillies started in the first race at five furlongs. Hymettus, the favorite, could not untrack herself and finished far back. Fleeing Venus, a 15 to 1 shot, came from nowhere in the last furlong and won in a drive by half a length from Sweet Nell, a 100 to 1 shot.

Rocky, at the liberal odds of 15 to 1, took the second race, for platers at a mile, in a drive. He beat Grail, a 50 to 1 shot, by a length, the favorite, Potente, running third.

The two-year-old filly Stamping Ground in the fifth event, for all ages at seven furlongs straightaway, led from start to finish, winning hard driven by a length from Flora Pomona, 20 to 1, with The Referee, 50 to 1, third.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Foul riding on the part of Coburn, who rode MacGyle to victory in the third race, caused his mount to be disqualified and the race went to Scotch Plaid, the heavily played favorite. Buchanan, who rode Ncotch Plaid, immediately lodged a complaint of foul upon dismounting and the judges deliberated for some time, during which Coburn was called into the stand, finally the number of MacGyle was pulled down and the home set back to last place. The decision of the judges brought forth loud cheers from the large crowd which had surrounded the stand, because the majority of the people had wagered on Scotch Plaid, forcing his odds from 5 to 2 to 11 to 5. The foul occurred at the half-mile pole, where Buchanan says Coburn deliberately pulled in on him, forcing Scotch Plaid against the rail. Coburn did not deny that there was some crowding at the point, but contended it was unintentional and could not be helped.

NOW CONDUCTING A CRUSADE AGAINST THE EVIL.

Hans Wagner and Bellario Already Ruled Off and Now Red Path Is Under Investigation—Hot Tip on The Rival Redfern's Services in Demand—Gossip

The racing authorities appear to be deternined to put an end to the practice of "doping" horses with the idea of making them run faster than their natural speed. Fol-lowing the refusal of the entry of Hans Wagner, owned by J. S. O'Brien, who won at Saratoga, came the announcement published in THE SUN of yesterday to the effect that Bellario, owned by A. L. Aste, had been barred by the Coney Island Jockey Club's stewards with a reference of the case to the Jockey Club. During the races at Sheeps-head Bay yesterday afternoon the stewards were on the alert. Before the fifth race, Red Path, owned by Buckly & Bailey, acted so crazily in the paddock that the stewards looked him over and later questioned Landry. who had the mount. Just what conclusion they arrived at could not be learned, but that they are watching closely for evidence of this practice there can be no doubt. It is common talk at the racetrack that certain trainers "dope" their horses, that they have grown bold because there has never been persistent crusade against them and that even if found out no severe punishment awaits them. So far the owners of the horses whose entries have been refused, have nobeen personally penalized, but it is believed that in the course of time there will be a rule framed by the Jockey Club which will mean the ruling off of any owner or trainer who can be shown to be guilty of the practice The hottest tip in circulation at the track resterday was that on J. E. Madden's The Rival. Everybody seemed to have it and when the colt won on the wire, there was an outburst from the crowd like that on Su-burban day. While many pronounced The Rival's victory a shocking reversal of form. it was said in behalf of Madden that Articulate was carrying seven pounds more than on Wednesday last, and that at the mile and a quarter pole the Western horse was in front of the Halma colt, which was the case in their last race. But the strangest part of he whole proceedings was that John A. Drake, who bet $10,000 on Articulate on Wednesday, was credited with backing The Rival yesterday. At least his commissioners were seen making bets on The Rival in the Rival yesterday. At least his commissioners were seen making bets on The Rival in the ring, and when the crowd got a line on them there was a great plunge all around. Madden's success lately with Col. Bill and The Rival, against both of whom he has secured juicy odds, is the talk of the turf just now. Arthur Redfern rode three winners yesterday, Fleeing Venus, Belle of Troy and Stamping Ground. The boy has developed so rapidly this year that his services are in great demand. It is understood that Col. James E. Pepper, his employer, has received an offer of $10,000 for second call on Redfern's services. Who made this offer nobody seemed to know yesterday, but it was hinted that it came from J. B. Haggin.

The selling-race war keeps on. When Rocky won the second race yesterday P. J. Gorman, the Western turfman, bid him up to $1,200, his owner retaining him with an extra $2 bid. Then Gorman put in a claim in the fifth race for J. S. O'Brien's Flora Pomona for $2,830, the amount of the winner's share of the purse and the entered selling price, $2,000. W. T. McGrath also put in a claim in this race for Gorman's gelding. Stuyve, and got him for $1,930.

James Galway has sold Belvino to J. H. Baker for $3,500, and Barry Littlefield has signed to train for J. E. Seagram.

Gen. McLewee and "Diamond" Jim Brady uncorked a supposed good thing in the first race yesterday in Anne Hathaway, by The Bard—Equipoise, hence a full sister to The Rhymer, who was backed down from 300 to Rhymer, who was backed down from so to 1 to 50 to 1, but was never prominent.

Jack McDonald enjoyed a good-sized killing with Belle of Troy yesterday. He got 3 to 1 for his money, and when the mare won the $1,200 handicap McDonald scorched the got heak

In the second race there was a spill that was remarkable for the wonderful escape of three jockeys. After going nearly three-quarters of a mile, Jim Tully, ridden by Creamer, broke down and fell. Lee King and Prince Richard, ridden by Rice and Michaels respectively, fell over him in a heap. The crowd thought that the boys were either killed or seriously injured, but they escaped with only a few scratches. Jim Tully broke his neck. Prince Richard was a good thing, backed down from tens to sixes.

Previous winners of the Golden Rod Stakes, were been by Sergeant yesterday, were Henry of Navarre, One I Love, Typhoon II., Easter Gift, Prince George, Rhinelander, Col. Roosevelt, Bellario and Homestead. Sergeant's time, 1.20 4-5, clipped one-fifth of a second from Homestead's track record.

Green B. Morris's Watercure won the Russet Handicap last year, other winners being Bathampton, Deerslayer, Joe Miller, Thomas Cat, Prince McClurg and Maid of Harlem.

MASS MEETING ABOUT FIGHT. Louisville Citizens Take Measures to Prevent McGovern-Corbett Battle.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 12 .- A mass meet citizens of Louisville adopted resolutions last-night calling upon the whole legal machinery of the State to stop the fight for Sept. 22 between Terry McGovern and Young Corbett Mayor Grainger, who had declared himself in favor of the fight, was invited to attend, but refused to put in an appearance. Speeches were made by Col. Bennett H. Young, Helm Bruce, Judge A. P. Humphrey and the Rev. C. E. Craik, all leading professional men here.

The resolutions are lengthy and call upon the Governor first to put a stop to the fight. the Governor first to put a stop to the fight, then the Attorney-General, then the Mayor, the Board of Public Bafety, the Sheriff, the constables and the Magistrates. The ministers recited that if the authorities did not interfere warrants would be sworn out against McGovern and Corbett and they would be arrested. If they were released in time to pull off the fight it was determined to enjoin the Southern Athletic Club from using the Auditorium for the fight and to keep some one on the lookout to swear out similar proceedings to keep them from using any other buildings to keep them from using any other build-

Several of the principal attorneys of Louisville volunteered their services to the Citizens' Committee and the ministers' association in prosecuting the case. Manager Gray of the Southern A. He says the fight will be pulled off according to schedule and that no law in Kentucky can prevent it.

Most Successful Circuit Meet Ever Held There Closes With Good Racing. SYRACUSE, Sept. 12.-The best week's racing ever seen in Syracuse came to an end to-day when the Grand Circuit races held in were finished. This year's racing has been so successful and of such a satisfactory character that in all probability the appropriation for racing will be larger next year, which will mean more stake races.

The 2:10 trot was the feature of to-day's races. It was not decided to start Waubun till the last minute. The gray gelding had things all his own way, which might not have been so had not the favorite. Wentworth, made a break in the first heat being distanced. Wentworth was heavily played and his break cost his owner several hundred dollars. Scott Hudson ended the week by winning two more races, the 2:18 pace, in which with Alice Russell he defeated the only other starter, Reelected, who was a hot favorite. He also got the 2:10 pace with Don Riley without any trouble. Carl Wilkes won the 2:15 pace without ever being headed. While the 2:22 trot went to Annie Held, who won her second race of the week, Rustic made the mare step each heat through the stretch, but did not have brush enough left stretch, but did not have brush enough left to beat her home. Senator Horace White won the wagon race, much to the surprise of the other competitors. Alta McDonald drove Connor, 2:03%, and Dariel, 2:05%, in an attempt to lower the world's pacing team record of 2:08 held by Robert J. and John R. Gentry. The mile was finished in 2:10 flat, Connor making a break and running the last 160 yards.

Irish Champion Weight Thrower May Come Here.

It is quite probable that T. F. Kiely, the veteran Irish weight thrower, may be a competitor at the A. A. U. National championships petitor at the A. A. U. National championships to be held at Travers Island, on Sept. 13. In a letter to James E. Sullivan, secretary of the A. A. U. yesterday, J. K. Baillie of the University of Pennsylvania says, writing from Congleton: "T. F. Kiely of Carrick on Suir, Ireland, told me at Belfast that he intended competing in the A. A. U. championships. He just made a record of 152 feet 5 inches with the old style straight-handle hammer.

So far Kiely's entry has not been received for the weights, but it may come by the next foreign mail. Should the "Carrick man" appear at the championships he will undoubtedly create a stir among the weight throwers. Besides the figures quoted with the hammer Kiely holds the record for throwing the 5a-pound weight, unlimited run, and follow, with a distance of 38 feet 4 inches. Throwing in the American style his figures are unknown, but he should fling the big ball far enough to be a dangerous rival to the best men here. Kiely is also a first-class broad jumper and hurdler.

The entries of Baillie Allen and Westney, who are touring in England just now, were cabled for the A. A. U. meet yesterday. George Orton will be a starter in the half-mile run. o be held at Travers Island, on Sept. 13.

Gov. There was a splendid gathering of onlookers to see the players tee off and finish, while many of the matches were very close and exciting. The morning play brought out L. E. Myers and G. P. Cornellus Vanderbilt Buys the Cherokee. Cornelius Vanderbilt has purchased the big steam yacht Cherokee and it is said will make a cruise to the West Indies this winter. The Cherokee belonged to the estate of the late William Clark of Newark and she was built in 1893 by the Naval Construction and Armaments Company, now Vickers Sons & Maxim, at Barrow-in-Furness for Ford Ashburton. She was designed by W. G. Storey. In 1897 Whittaker Wright purchased the yacht and changed her name to Sybarite and last spring she was purchased by the late William Clark. NEWS OF THE HARNESS HORSES Promising Card for the Empire City Cir-cult Meet Next Week. Next week's card for the Grand Circuit meeting at the Empire City track promises are sport. Secretary Wilson has issued his entry book giving names, records, owners and pedigrees of all starters, a neat volume, interesting and replete with useful information. The new association has everything at stake in holding such a meeting at so late a day, as unfavorable weather means heavy financial losses. Rich stakes ever bring to a meeting leading stables and all specialists note, and yet now that the "fair season" on, it is hard to successfully compete at such times as horsemen are contemplating vari-ously locating for the winter months.

In the winter various stakes were opened and class events galore were added, after the season's opening. Since then not a few star performers have developed so that the later classes contain as many of the phenomena trotters and pacers as will be seen in the specials. On Monday the ball opens with the New York Stake for 2:11 class trotters. with Idolita, 2:09%; Poindexter, 2:09; Walter Keim. 2:11%; Susic J., 2:06%; Metallas, 2:11 Anzella, 2:07%; Fereno, 2:10%, and others. If Susie J. and Anzella meet on even term it should be a race wherein every heat is better than 2:10.

Idolita went lame in the $10,000 stake at Hartford, yet may be in shape by next week to give the California mare her first defeat of the season. In the Bronx Stake for 2.09 pacers will be Direct Hal, 2.044; Twinkle, 2.054; Dandy Chimes, 2.07½; Prince Direct, 20074; Dan R., 2044; Sphinx S., 2084;
Direct Hal, Prince Drect, former Mayor Grant's three-year-old filly Bugle, trial 2:144;
The Questor, Ed Geers's crack green trotter that has forced out so many this season in fast heats, all will be seen in the first day's fast heats, all will be seen in the first day's races.

The Empire for 220 trotters, the Yonkers for 220 pacers and the 2.15 class for pacers are features for the second day. The Monk and Lord Derby to wagon with owners up will entertain on Wednesday together with numerous specials. The Westchester for 2.30 trotters, the 2.05 pace and the 2.11 trot are scheduled for Thursday and all have great performers entered. On Friday come the 2.14 trot for $5,000—the Mount Vernon Stake—2.09 trot and 2.07 pace. Dan Patch, 1.5935, will try on such day as the track seems favorable for a record-breaking attempt, and the Anaconda—Prince Alert special will surely lead to as fast a race as has been witnessed on an Eastern track.

New York is last swinging into line as the amateurs' headquarters, and the association has arranged many events for cups in which will be seen the leading wagon trotters and pacers, with owners driving.

The track needed the heavy rainfall and
